HOW TO REACH PODGORICA

By plane

Podgorica Airport (LYPG/TGD) is situated 12 km (7.5 miles) south of Podgorica. It is a base for Montenegro Airlines, Montenegro's national carrier, which flies to major European destinations. For booking and flight schedule check the carrier web site:

<https://www.montenegroairlines.com/home.html>.

For other airlines serving the airport, check the airport web site:

<http://www.montenegroairports.com/eng/index.php?menu=&menu1>

Combi buses operate to and from the city center, but may not be available at all times. Thus, probably the best bet is to take a taxi to the city, as taxis are to be found in abundance in front of the terminal.

There is also a train stop "Aerodrom" a short walk from the airport. Much cheaper than the taxi, but its existence will be denied by staff at the airport information desk. As of March 2017 the departures from the airport are at: 06:07, 07:32, 09:54, 12:37, 14:57, 15:41, 17:44, 19:08 and 20:48.

By train

Train station is located near the city center.

There is regular passenger train service from Subotica through Novi Sad and Belgrade. Train tickets are cheap, but quality of service is lower comparing European standards.

By bus

Bus station serves number of domestic destinations, as well as those in neighbouring countries.

The bus and rail way station are located next to each other. City center is 10 minutes walk from there, but if you have any luggage - it's recommended that you either take a minibus (combi) or some of the taxi. Timetables (in and out) can be found on the Podgorica Bus Terminal website: <http://www.busterminal.me/>

By car

Due to its location in central Montenegro, Podgorica is the hub of all main roads in the country. Road from the northern Montenegro and Serbia require additional caution during the winter. You can reach Podgorica from Serbia (via Rožaje or Bijelo Polje), Bosnia (via Nikšić), Albania (via Drac).

By ferry

There are ferries that arrive in Montenegro from Italy to the port of Bar (line Bar-Bari) and there is also a ferry line from Italy to Albania.
